register for $500 each and will be placed on a team made up from business leaders from throughout the region. The 2011 Kart Race Enduro will benefit the 34,000+ youth served annually by the Dan Beard Council. The outing is being held at Motorsports Country Club of Cincinnati, the premier kart racing track located at a private country club in Batavia.

The event will feature practice laps, time trials, and two full enduro races:

Registration and Lunch (11:45 am) : Lunch is provided. Racers will go through registration and begin to get suited up. Helmets, helmet socks, and outerwear are available. Long sleeves and tennis shoes required.

Instruction and Practice (12:45 - 1:15pm): Beginning racers are welcome and encouraged. A safety instructional class, racing lesson overview, and practice laps will be available to all. Qualifying laps will follow.

Racing (1:15 - 5:15pm): Teams of 3-4 drivers will compete in an enduro race on a professional .7 mile track.

Appetizers & Awards (5:15 - 6:30pm): Food and beverages provided for all racers, and bragging rights and awards are presented to the fastest teams.
