Four Different Meeting Rooms

Each of the four rooms available for reservation at the Scout Achievement Center offers something different. Whether it's your Tiger Den's first meeting, your organization's annual awards dinner, or a committee planning meeting, there's sure to be a room that fits your group's needs. With full audio/video capabilities and internet access available in each room, you can easily incorporate the latest technology into your event.

Making a Reservation

We invite you and your group to enjoy the Scout Achievement Center by hosting an event in one of our meeting rooms. The SAC is a busy place and room reservations are in high demand at certain times of the year. By all working together, we can keep the SAC a great meeting place for every group. Making a reservation is easy and the Dan Beard Council staff will help accommodate as much as possible along the way.

Here are the steps to making a room reservation...

1. Choose a Room -- Once your group has determined the type and size event you are going to have, explore the amenities of the conference rooms by clicking the link to the rooms above.
2. Understand the Usage Guidelines -- These are the "rules of the game" and were
