

Youth Protection Process

Written by Administrator
Friday, 19 October 2012 23:08 -

YOUTH PROTECTION of the Boy Scouts of America

Youth protection requires sustained vigilance. That is why the BSA has continued to develop and enhance its youth protection efforts as everyone continues to learn more about the dangers and challenges facing youth. The BSA has established a multi-tiered youth protection approach focused on volunteer screening, education and training for everyone in the program, and clear policies to protect youth.

This is how it works:

Prepared. For Life.™

