

By the numbers

Written by Jason Baldrige

Tuesday, 31 January 2012 02:28 - Last Updated Tuesday, 31 January 2012 02:31

SUMMIT BECHTEL FAMILY NATIONAL SCOUT RESERVE
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA
summit.scouting.org

More adventure, more action and more fun. That is what you can expect at the BSA's new jamboree home and high adventure base. Set to open in 2013, get ready to GO BIG and GET WILD.

460 MILLION YEARS OLD
AGE OF APPALACHIAN MOUNTAINS

10,600 ACRES LAND
NEW RIVER GORGE NATIONAL RIVER
70,000 ACRES
1,270 ACRE Footprint

ELEVATION difference
1,300 FEET from lowest to highest point
25 miles of backcountry trails

100 feet tall at the highest point
CONSOL Energy Wing Tip Bridge

Day of SERVICE
3 Days
40,000 Scouts
300,000 Hours of COMMUNITY SERVICE

6 HIGH-ADVENTURE BASES
→ Aquatics
→ Climbing
→ Mountain Biking
→ Skateboarding & BMX
→ Shooting sports
→ 12 acres of shooting sports
→ 150+ stations
→ Zip line (1/2 mile) & canopy tours

Camping Villages
5 for scouts & leaders, 1 for staff
Each Village contains 25 campsites
40,000 SCOUTS • 6,800 STAFF

2.32 million RECYCLED Water expected at 2013 JAMBOREE