A family of 6 Eagle Scouts to attend Eagle Court of Honor to celebrate the Eagle Scout rank of 2 of the brothers

CINCINNATI, OH – December 19, 2018 – The Boy Scouts of America, Dan Beard Council’s Boy Scout Troop 641, chartered by St. John the Baptist Catholic Parish, host an Eagle Court of Honor to honor the upcoming Eagle Scouts. Eagle courts of honor are fully developed celebrations recognizing Scouts who have attained Scouting’s highest rank. This very special ceremony will celebrate achievement of brothers Sam and Joshua Moeller of Troop 641.

This is a unique celebration because they are the 5th and 6th sibling in the family to achieve the Eagle Scout rank. In attendance of this Eagle Court of Honor will be the entire Moeller family. The Moller family includes 6 brothers who have all now reached the Eagle Scout rank. Daniel, age 30, has a PhD and lives in California. Tim, age 28, lives in Denver and works as an Aerospace Engineer. Ben, age 25, is a Software Chemical Engineer and lives in Wisconsin. Adam, age 23, is working on a Graduate degree at Stanford and is interested in teaching. Lasalle High School students Sam, age 17 and Joshua, age 15, will be honored at this Eagle Court of Honor ceremony. The entire family is gathering in Cincinnati for the holidays and will be in attendance at this special Eagle Court of Honor to celebrate their brothers. This is an exciting accomplishment for this family and the Dan Beard Council.

ABOUT THE DAN BEARD COUNCIL
