B04 Session C: 10:30 am – 11:20 am	Tips to Running a FUN Scouts BSA Troop Get great tips and tricks on how adults can help youth in creating a fun and engaging Scouting program
B05 Session C: 10:30 am – 11:20 am	High Adventure Adult Advisor Training The key to every Scouts BSA and Venturing activity is youth leadership. High adventure trips present unique growth opportunities for youth, and unique challenges for adult advisors. Staying in your role as an adult advisor (not as an adult leader) on high adventure trips fosters the youth growth, but can be more demanding and more difficult than you encounter in your monthly unit program. This course will help you recognize and handle these additional demands and help you plan ahead of time for success. This course is designed for seasoned Scouters as well as for parents who may be going on their first Scouting trip.
B06 Session D: 1:10 pm – 2:00 pm	NEW: Introduction to Kodiak Challenge Come learn about Kodiak Challenge, where ILST, NYLT, or NAYLE graduates can apply their leadership knowledge to challenges while pushing their comfort zone in the spirit of adventure. Scouts and leaders are both welcome to attend this informational and idea-sharing session.
B07 Session D: 1:10 pm – 2:00 pm	NEW: Keeping Older Scouts Involved Tips for reinvigorating youth and keeping them involved and engaged in your troop and in scouting after they earn their Eagle, as they near aging out, and if they start losing interest in the program.
B08 Session A-B: 8:30 am – 10:20 am	Coaching the Coach – How to Work with your Eagle Scout Candidate This class is intended for District Advancement Representatives and adult coaches/mentors that coach Life scouts who are navigating their way to the rank of Eagle Scout. We will review some of the common pitfalls that can result in delays and even denial of the rank. After this class you will be able to guide scouts through the project, application, and board of review phases, resulting in successful advancement to the rank of Eagle Scout.
B09 Session D: 1:10 pm – 2:00 pm	Youth Led Troops Learn how to use BSA tools and training to work with your Committee and Youth Leadership Team to build a youth run, adult guided Troop.

College of Commissioner's Science

COM01:

Session A: 8:30 am – 9:20 am

NEW: Core Concepts of Commissioner Service

The position of commissioner is one of the oldest in Scouting. This course reviews and reinforces the commissioner core concepts and identifies the key skills needed for commissioner to be able to assess the units they serve. At the end of this training a commissioner will be able to: Define & Identify the role and types of commissioners, Describe the five commissioner focus areas, State the key skills needed to be a good commissioner, and Apply this new knowledge and understanding for exceptional unit service.

COM02:

Session B: 9:30 am – 10:20 am

NEW: Linking District Resources

A key part of the Commissioner's job is to point a unit in the direction of the actual process owner for the topic in question. Many of those topics have a process owner on the local District Committee who has ready access to further resources and wisdom. At the end of this training a commissioner will be able to: Explain typical District structure and the functions of the District, Know how to use the resources of the District to better support the units they serve, Utilize the Unit Service Plan when assessing the unit needs by identifying District resources.

COM03:

Session C: 10:30 am – 11:20 am

NEW: Contacting Units

This course examines the role of contacts between commissioners and their units. At the end of this training a commissioner will be able to: Describe how the concept of commissioner service is demonstrated in frequent unit contacts, Identify ways to demonstrate good commissioner service as we serve as a coach/mentor and representative of the BSA, and explain the importance of using Commissioner Tools to record and manage unit contacts.

COM04:

Session D: 1:10 pm – 2:00 pm

NEW: Journey to Excellence

JTE is the BSA's tool for helping leaders plan their program, monitor progress, and assess their Scouting success. JTE success employs a "balanced scorecard" as a result. The standards enable both large Scout units and small ones to succeed — as long as they provide good Scouting to youth. At the end of this training a commissioner will be able to: Explain the value of the unit's use of Journey to Excellence, Relate the use of JTE to help the unit recognize the benefit of building their program around the Journey to Excellence criteria, and Identify resources to help improve Journey to Excellence performance in the unit.

COM05:

Session E: 2:10 pm – 3:00 pm

NEW: Mining Internet Resources

Commissioners are asked many questions and assumed to be experts on everything. Knowing where to find information can make them a virtual expert. In this course we will concentrate not on the local "who do you call" but on using the internet, in effect, mining internet resources. As a result of this session, participants will: Recognize internet resources with good information, select reliable websites for use, and Summarize internet resources for unit and commissioner use.

COM06

Session F: 3:10 pm – 4:00 pm

NEW: Unit Commissioner & Unit Key 3

In this course, we examine the roles of the unit key 3 and how commissioners work and coach each. At the end of this training a commissioner will be able to: Identify the roles of the unit key 3 leadership, create a working bond between the key 3 and the commissioner, and Translate unit key 3 equals stronger units.

COM101

Sessions A-C:

8:30 am – 11:20 am

Basic Commissioner Training

This training examines what a Commissioner is, what a Commissioner does and how a Commissioner does it. Commissioner training focuses on ways to develop the program capability of a unit through building relationships with unit leaders and being a resource to them as they find ways to develop strength within the unit operation.
