SCOUTING SAFELY

The BSA's Commitment to Safety

We want you to know that the safety of our youth, volunteers, staff, and employees is an important part of the Scouting experience. Youth develop traits of citizenship, character, fitness, and leadership during age-appropriate events when challenged to move beyond their normal comfort level and discover their abilities. This is appropriate when risks are identified and mitigated.

Youth Protection

True youth protection can be achieved only through the focused commitment of everyone in Scouting. It is the mission of Youth Protection, volunteers and professionals, to work within the Boy Scouts of America to maintain a culture of Youth Protection awareness and safety at the national, council, district, and unit levels.

The Boy Scouts of America places the greatest importance on creating the most secure environment possible for our youth members. To maintain such an environment, the BSA developed numerous procedural and leadership selection policies:

Required Training – Login at my.scouting.org or Scan the QR Code

Youth Protection training is required for all BSA registered volunteers. Youth Protection training must be taken every two years. If a volunteer's Youth Protection training expires, their registration will be expired, the registration fees will not be refunded. In order to get reinstated, the leader must complete Youth Protection Training, submit a new leader application and pay the registration fees.

Youth Protection Reporting Procedures for Volunteers

There are two types of Youth Protection–related reporting procedures all volunteers must follow:

When you witness or suspect any child has been abused or neglected, follow the below steps to report child abuse:

1. Ensure the child is in a safe environment.
2. In cases of child abuse or medical emergencies, call 911 immediately.
In addition, if the suspected abuse is in the Scout's home or family, you are required to contact the local child abuse hotline. The number for you county can be found at www.danbeard.org/dan-beard-council-youth-protection, or by scanning the QR Code.
3. Notify the Scout Executive.

When you witness a violation of the BSA's Youth Protection policies, including those described within Scouting's Barriers to Abuse, you must notify your local council Scout Executive so appropriate action can be taken for the safety of our Scouts.

Guide to Safe Scouting

The Guide to Safe Scouting is an overview of Scouting policies and procedures gleaned from a variety of sources. Unit leaders are expected to review the additional reference material cited prior to conducting such activities.

How & Why to Use this Guide

Units that plan, promote and execute their Ideal Year in Scouting, offer unparalleled experiences that retain their Scouts and families for years to come.

What Are Your Goals?

A stronger program for Scouts at less personal cost to you

More parental involvement

More of your Scouts camping

Increased retention

More funding with less time spent on fundraising

To eliminate out-of-pocket expenses for your parents

Enough money to do all the activities

Scouting to be simpler, easier and more fun

The Steps of the Ideal Year of Scouting

1. Plan

Work your way through this guide and map out the advancements, activities, camping, training and parent involvement you'll need for your Ideal Year of Scouting.

2. Fund

Determine the expenses from all the activities, advancements, camping and training your unit wants to do, then decide how much fundraising your unit must do to cover those expenses.

3. Grow

When you have a good plan, communicate it to your current and potential Scouts to engage more boys and girls in the Scouting program, along with their parents to help make it all happen.

4. Train

Plan to promote trainings to your current and new leaders every Scout deserves a trained leader.

5. Assess

Use the Journey to Excellence worksheet to measure the success of your plan and your year

Get Started

Start with the next few pages and follow the steps below:

1. Use the Den & Pack Meeting Resource Guide / Troop Program Features to make planning easier.
2. Determine what advancements each Scout will need for next rank.
3. Decide what activities the Scouts will do. What activities went well last year to do again? What could be dropped and replace with something new?
4. Plan to do at least one service project with your chartering organization and Scouting For Food!

Growing Adult Leadership & Developing a Succession Plan

Recruiting Adults

Along with recruiting youth we often times don't put enough emphasis into recruiting adult volunteers year-round and having a succession plan within your unit. In the following pages there is information to help identify and recruit adult volunteers into your Pack or Troop.

The most common complaint and struggle with Scout Units is not being able to find enough adult volunteers to help. Below please find some helpful pointers in assuring that your unit's health will remain strong for many years to come.

Parent Talent
Survey

Have every parent fill out the Parent Talent Survey/Troop Survey

Have an assistant leader for each key position within the unit:

Cubmaster, Den Leaders, Scoutmaster, Patrol Advisors & Committee Chairs

Make sure Key Leadership positions are filled before summer starts

Ask every parent to volunteer for a role, even if it is just a small one, such as a parent helper for an event. Involving each family will bring more buy in to the program and setting this expectation will ensure great parent involvement for years to come.

Assessing Your Unit

One of the most important steps in planning a successful year-round Scout program is assessing the Scout Unit on how they did the year before. The Journey to excellence program is one way to easily do so. Below are some easy steps in assessing your Scout Unit's overall health and please refer back often to the Journey to Excellence Scorecard.

What do your Scouts want from your unit?

Fun, Adventure, Excitement, New Opportunities!

What do you probably want from your unit?

Fun, Rewarding, Chance to help youth, Chance for service, Efficient, Help from others, not take too much of your time, be and feel successful!

What do your Scouts' parents want from your unit?

Growth, improved character, Cub Scout has fun and is happy, Safe, Well Organized, not too expensive, doesn't take too much time, opportunity for youth to do service.

What does Scouting want from your unit?

Serve youth, use BSA methods and policies, be strong, healthy and growing.

Journey to Excellence helps you get there.

It brings:

Advancements	Guidance in areas you might do better
Membership	Guidelines and Standards of good performance
Outdoor	Early warnings of potential problem areas
Retention	Recognition for your good performance
Service Projects	Benchmarking to get ideas and tips from other good units
Leadership	Framework for evaluating your Cub Scout Pack
Training	Assessment of how you're doing in the key areas found in great Cub Scout Packs
Budget

The Journey to Excellence scorecards can be found by scanning the QR Code or by visiting www.scouting.org/awards/journey-to-excellence.

Leadership Training

If you had a magic wand, would you use it to make the Scouting program better and more fun for youth, so they stayed in Scouting longer, so it had a larger impact on their lives? What if the same magic wand made leadership roles easier, more rewarding, and led to better retention among adult leaders? Would using that magic wand be a top priority? Well, such a magic wand does exist—in the form of the learning programs for leaders in the Boy Scouts of America.

Access Your Training

Kick off a new year of Scouting with the training you need to be a successful unit leader. The BSA's Scouting U team continues to update available leader training in the Training Center available at my.scouting.org. Now at my.scouting.org, leaders can get trained for their volunteer role without leaving the house. Complete the courses at your own pace from a home computer or tablet. PLANNING YOUR YEAR

Planning Your Program

A good program for your Scouts takes planning and preparation. In order to have a successful program, ensure to both the parents and most importantly, the Scouts that they will have fun and learn new things. History shows that a common element of strong programs is a good annual program planned at least a year in advanced that is shared with all the families as a calendar.

Unit Leader Tools

These are designed to give you some tools and resources to help you plan your program and fulfill your role in your unit. For a comprehensive list of resources available to assist you, visit out www.danbeard.org/resources/Unit-leader-tools or scan the QR Code.

The Adventure Plan

Every adventure starts with an idea. Maybe it is a suggestion to the Patrol Leaders Council, or maybe it comes from the unit committee or maybe from the unit's adult leadership, but ideally it should be an adventure that the youth of the unit are excited about and committed to. Some adventures can be planned in a short period of time; some may take 18-24 months depending on the adventure. The Adventure Plan (TAP) provides a one-stop set of tools to help adult and youth leaders envision, plan, prepare and conduct safe, exciting and successful outdoor Adventures.

Your unit Adventure may be as simple as an overnight backpacking trip or bike ride, or maybe it is a week-long or longer activity. This online planning guide is encouraged for all levels of Scouting from Cub Scouts to Venturing. Not all the steps outlined in this guide will apply to your unit's Adventure. What steps apply will depend on what type of Adventure your unit selects.

As you progress through the guide, you will find links to BSA guidelines, forms and on-line training sites essential for planning and conducting safe and exciting unit Adventures. More information on TAP can be found at tap.scouting.org.

Utilizing Camp Facilities for Your Program

DBC Summer Camp

Dan Beard Council hosts Scouts at Camp Friedlander and Cub World Adventure Camp each summer. Camping at the Cub Scout level introduces boys and girls to the outdoors and helps them develop outdoor skills at an age-appropriate level that will be applied more thoroughly as a Scout in Scouts, BSA.

As Cub Scouts progress, the opportunities for outdoor adventures become more challenging. The upcoming Dan Beard Council summer camp opportunities at Cub World Adventure Camp can be found by scanning the QR Code or visiting www.danbeard.org/cub-scout-camping/.

Cub World Adventure Camp

Outdoor adventure is the promise made to boys and girls when they join Scouting. Young people yearn for outdoor programs that stir their imagination and interest. Camp Friedlander is designed to help troops deliver on that promise to their Scouts. Scouts BSA is designed to take place in the outdoors.

Camp Friedlander

It is outside that Scouts share responsibilities and learn to live with one another. It's outside that skills and activities practiced at troop meetings come alive with purpose. Outside is the laboratory in which Scouts gain self-esteem, leadership skills, and an appreciation for the world around them. Scouts in Scouts BSA plan their own advancement and progress at their own pace. Choose from 120 interests ranging from game development to wilderness survival. Experts in these fields are ready to provide fun, real-world experiences.

Service Hours Reporting

A service project is a special Good Turn that puts Scout spirit into action. Some Good Turns are big – saving a life, helping after floods or other disasters, recycling community trash, working on conservation projects. But Good Turns are often small, thoughtful acts – helping a child cross a busy street, going to the store for an elderly neighbor, cutting back brush that is blocking a sign, doing something special for a brother or sister, or welcoming a new student to your school. Anyone can get involved in a Good Turn.

As a unit, you can and should track your service hours. It will make you and your families feel good about the collective impact you are having in your community. Units should log service hours via ScoutBook, then clicking on "Activity Logs" or directly in Internet Advancement 2.0.

Pack and Den Leader Resources

There are several Pack resources and forms that might assist you in your planning. Did you know there were Pack calendar planning templates, campfire program planners, family talent surveys to help with parent involvement, and more? We want to make sure that you are armed with all the information and resources you need to make the program easy, exciting, and fun for both you and the Scouts.

Journey to Excellence

Journey to excellence helps to provide an outline of areas for you to understand, plan for, and achieve to help strengthen your Pack program for the youth and families participating. On the following pages, you will find some resources that explain how the program works. You can also get additional information by visiting www.scouting.org/JTE, or by scanning the QR Code.

Advancement

Advancement is one of the methods used to achieve Scouting's aims: character development, citizenship training, and personal fitness. The advancement program is designed to help the Cub Scout achieve these aims and aid in his or her personal growth. National Outdoor Awards Program

Do you enjoy camping under the stars, rafting on a whitewater river, or hitting the trail afoot, on a bike, or even on a horse? Can you pitch a tent, find your way, and bandage an ankle using only materials in your pack? Are you prepared to do any of these in rain, snow, sleet, or heat?

If so, the National Outdoor Awards are for you. There is nothing virtual about these awards—you can earn them only by demonstrating knowledge and experience in the outdoors.

So, if you are a member of Scouts BSA, Varsity Scout, Sea Scout, or Venture Scout, and think you are tough and disciplined enough to hike or ride the miles, camp the nights, run the rivers or lakes, or do the work to conserve the land, then read on and see if the National Outdoor badges or possibly the National Medal for Outdoor Achievement could be for you! Scan the QR Code or visit www.danbeard.org/national-outdoor-awards-program to learn more.

Annual Troop Program Planning Conference

This is the step where your troop program comes alive. The success of this conference began when you, the Scoutmaster, prepared your senior patrol leader. Be alert throughout the conference to help the senior patrol leader. Don't wait for him to fail but be careful not to take over for him. Careful, non-intrusive coaching will help your senior patrol leader build confidence. Share your leadership with them.

Who Attends the Conference?

The troop's annual planning conference is attended by the Scoutmaster, assistant Scoutmaster for the new-Scout patrol, assistant Scoutmaster for the Venture patrol, senior patrol leader, assistant senior patrol leader, patrol leaders, and troop guide.

Physical Arrangements

Careful planning should ensure that this planning conference is a first-class experience for your youth leaders. Pick a location that would be special to your Scouts, possibly one offering opportunities for other activities, such as swimming, boating, etc. You can make it a weekend experience, although the conference is easily completed in a day.

Whichever you do, don't involve the youth leaders in a lot of housekeeping chores that distract them from the primary purpose of planning the troop program. Consider using other troop adults to cook and clean up; let your patrol leaders' council concentrate on the task at hand. Make sure the facilities are suited for a conference. Is ventilation good? Is there sufficient lighting? Are the chairs comfortable? Are there tables to work on? Is there a way to hang calendars on the wall?

Setting up the conference facility should have been previously assigned to members of the patrol leader's council. A checkup by the senior patrol leader prior to the conference ensures that nothing is forgotten. Follow the agenda. When directing a session, your senior patrol leader should be aware that it's easy to get sidetracked. If the group starts to drift away from the agenda, a gentle nudge from you may be in order to put them back on course.

Conference Ground Rules

Remember the below conference ground rules:

1. The Senior Patrol Leader presides
2. Every event and program are voted on
3. The majority rules. (Note: No time limits have been placed on the agenda but working sessions should last no longer than 45 minutes without a break.)

Additional Resources

It's been said that the weekly troop meeting is the glue that holds a Scout troop together. From beginning to end, there should always be something happening creating a focus, capturing and maintaining the Scouts' attention, and providing the grounds for rewarding experiences. There should be a period set aside to learn new things that are useful and relevant, moments that are amusing and entertaining, and opportunities to put skills into action in ways that are challenging and fun.

Troop members should leave the meeting feeling invigorated, feeling good about Scouting, and feeling good about themselves. Scan the QR Code or visit www.troopleader.scouting.org/program-features/ for program features.

VENTURING & SEA SCOUT ZONE

Venturing Program Resources

Let's talk about one of the key elements of all successful crews and an indicator of a potentially successful year. Of course, that would be the crew's annual program plan and planning conference. Research conducted by Eli Lilly in Indianapolis, Indiana, showed that a common element of strong units is they all have a good annual program planned a year in advance that is then shared with all families in the form of a calendar. The important result of a shared annual program calendar is that your crew will attract more families and Venturers will stay involved longer.

Two other key elements of successful units identified in that study were training and having just the right leader to start with. Here's how a crew program planning process works. A month or two before the scheduled face-to-face conference, crew Advisor, committee chair, and crew leader meet to begin preparation. Visit www.danbeard.org/venturing-program-planning, or scan the QR Codes to the right, to get all of the preparation steps.

Sea Scout Program Resources

There are many reasons why young adults should be interested in Sea Scouts. Being on the water and learning to operate a boat powered by wind is a traditional rewarding experience. For thousands of years, sailing and water transportation was the most important methods of travel for trade, business, culture, war, and practically every other major advancement. Sea Scouting is a co-educational program for young adults between the ages of 14 and 21. Young adults that are 13 years old and have completed the eighth grade are also eligible to join.

Sea Scouting is organized to promote better citizenship and to improve members' boating skills and knowledge through instruction and practice in water safety, boating skills, outdoor, social, and service experiences, and knowledge of our maritime heritage. Sea Scouting happens on, in and under the water. We are also involved in recreational boating, marine science, and/or maritime careers. Sea Scouting offers the challenge and excitement of the sea including sailing, navigation, safety, communications, mechanics, weather, piloting, and much more. Sea Scouting is an adventure on both land and sea.

FUNDING THE YEAR

Budget Planning is a large part of the unit's program planning process. Providing a quality program to our Scouts is the top priority of every unit and financial resources help to accomplish this. It is vital that each unit plans expenses for the year and what fundraising is needed in order to carry out the program.

Basic Expenses

$75/year per youth, $45/year per adult
$25 One-time Joining Fee
Unit Recharter Fee
$100/year per unit
Local Accident & Sickness Insurance
$5.50/year per youth and adult
Scout Life magazine subscription $15/year
Activities
Advancements
Reserve Fund

Troop/Den/Pack Dues
How much will each meeting and extra activity cost?
Summer, Winter, Day, and Resident Camps
Does the unit pay for part or all of these activities, or does the individual youth?
What type of awards and approximately how many does the unit plan to hand out?
Does the unit charge a due to help cover costs?
Does the unit have adequate funds in reserve for unforeseen expenses?

The Dan Beard Council provides youth with fundraising opportunities to help pay for the unit's expenses along with awards, camps, registration fees, boys life, and much more. Teaching our youth that they can earn their own way is just one of the many values that the Scouting teaches our Youth. Last year through the popcorn sale and spring product sales local units put hundreds of thousands into unit accounts to help provide quality program.

Unit Budgeting

The activities a pack, troop, or crew is able to participate in depends on both what funds are available as well as the plan on how those funds are used. It is important to plan out your unit's budget in advance to match the plans of your unit's program calendar. There are several components that go into managing a unit's account and budget throughout the year. The Unit Budgeting Guide can be found by scanning the QR Code or by visiting www.danbeard.org/unit-budget-planning/.

Unit Accounts

As a service to its units and customers, the Dan Beard Council accepts advanced deposits to be held by the council in a custodial account in the name of the unit. The unit account can be used for supplies, registration, Scout Life, camp registration fees, or activity fees. Funds from the unit account can be used in the Dan Beard Scout Shop.

If you wish to use the unit account service, you may simply bring a check, cash, or credit card (2% processing fee will apply) in the amount you want to have deposited into the account and a list of names of the people in your unit you wish to have able to use the money in the account. Only those listed will be able to use the account. Only the Committee Chairman, Chartered Organization Representative, Cubmaster, Scoutmaster, or Post Advisor may change the names on the account and this should be done in writing. Additional information about unit accounts is also available on the Unit Budget Planning page.

Unit Money Earning Application

The unit leadership in chartered organizations may participate in approved fundraising projects, provided BSA Rules and Regulations and guidelines are followed. This will help ensure the quality of the product or service and the safety of all participants and avoid the commercialization of the BSA. Every unit planning to conduct a fundraising activity (outside of the pre-approved popcorn & camp card sales) activity must submit a Unit Money-Earning Application (Form No. 34427) for approval by the chartered organization and the local council prior to holding the activity.

The form is available at www.danbeard.org/unit-budget-planning/ or by scanning the QR Code.

2023 Family Friends of Scouting

Funding for the Scouting Program, local events, camp facilities, trainings, and more comes in large part from our annual fundraising campaign called Friends of Scouting (F.O.S). This campaign is the one opportunity each year for communities, businesses, and families to support the Scouting movement to help ensure the delivery of a quality Scouting program to over 10,000 youth in Southwest Ohio and Northern Kentucky.

Your annual membership fee goes directly to the National Council, so all the local raised funds are what support our local Scout council each year. These dollars are invested into our local programs to provide new equipment, camp facilities, planning of large events, supplies, and resources for units to use throughout the year. Friends of Scouting makes up approximately 44% of the operating budget each year. All gifts stay local and help to support local Scouting programs and facilities. On average, it takes about $250 per Scout to provide the Scouting program for one year.

The family portion of the campaign is when families within Scouting have an opportunity to help support the program that their son or daughter is a part of by making a financial contribution. Together, we make a huge impact! That support goes a long way in helping us deliver the program we set out to give to the youth in our communities. We ask that each unit help do their part by scheduling a family FOS presentation. At this short 5-8-minute presentation, a local volunteer will visit your unit, help to share the impact of Scouting here in the Dan Beard Council, and ask if families will consider supporting the cause. Presentations are typically made during the months of January, February, and March.
