Honoring Paul Verst

Chairman & CEO Verst Logistics

Verst
LOGISTICS

Paul T. Verst is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Verst Group Logistics and Zenith Logistics.

Paul assumed the leadership role from his father, William G. Verst, in 1993. Since that time, he has overseen the expansion of the company's strategic plan and customer solutions. Of utmost importance to Paul is the commitment to putting the customer first.

A strong believer in giving back, Paul is currently on the boards of the Kenton County Airport Board (CVG), WOW Logistics, OneNKY Alliance, Horizon Community Fund, Central Bank Board of Advisors, and Xavier University's Board of Trustees. He is a past board member of Gateway Community & Technical College Foundation and the Dan Beard Boy Scout Council. As co-chair, Paul recently completed a $6 million capital campaign at Camp Michaels in Union, KY for the Dan Beard Scout Council. Paul is also a past chair of the International Warehouse Logistics Association (IWLA), the Ohio Warehouse Association (OWA), Tri-County Economic Development Foundation (TriED), the Cincinnati Grocery Manufacturers' Representatives, and the Executive Board of the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

Paul obtained a BSBA in Accounting along with an MBA in Management from Xavier University.

Paul resides in Cold Spring with his wife Sue of 38 years. Paul and Sue have three children, Christine, Christopher, and Patrick along with three grandchildren, Savannah, Rory, and Peri. His hobbies include golf, reading, coin collecting, Xavier basketball and spending time at their summer house in Charlevoix, Michigan.
